ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Article 1

NAME

The name of the Company is:

“SPV Project 2001 S.r.l.”.

Article 2

PURPOSE

Pursuant to Italian Law no. 130 of 30 April 1999 (“Italian Law no. 130/99”), the Company’s sole purpose is to carry out one or more securitisation transactions, to be funded through the issue of notes pursuant to Article 1, paragraph 1, letter b) of Italian Law no. 130/99 and to be carried out through a) the purchase of existing and future receivables (by the Company or another company established under Law no. 130/99), or a portfolio of receivables, if there are many of them, b) the granting of loans to entities other than individuals and micro-enterprises, or c) the issuing by the Company of a loan to the assignor of the receivables pursuant to Article 7 of Law no. 130/99 and in any case in accordance with the provisions of the aforementioned Law as subsequently amended and supplemented.

Within the limits permitted by Italian Law no. 130/99 and the contractual provisions of each securitisation transaction, the Company may conduct additional financial transactions as required to ensure the successful completion of the securitisation transactions it carries out, or that are instrumental to achieving the Company’s purpose, as well as re-invest in other financial assets - always within the aforementioned limits - the proceeds from the servicing of the receivables purchased that are not used to settle the claims arising from the notes issued by the Company in relation to the relevant securitisation transaction.

If the conditions set for each securitisation transaction are met and to the benefit of the holders of the notes issued, the Company may also assign the purchased receivables to third parties.

Moreover, the Company may carry out revolving transactions, i.e. transactions involving the use of proceeds from the servicing of the receivables purchased prior to or concurrently with the issue of the notes in order to purchase additional receivables. Pursuant to Article 3 of Italian Law no. 130/99, these additional receivables shall be considered as separate assets, and creditors other than the holders of the notes issued to fund the acquisitions shall have no claim to such assets.

Article 3

REGISTERED OFFICE

The Company is based in Milan.

Article 4

DURATION

The period fixed for the duration of the Company expires on 31 December 2100.

Article 5
CAPITAL

The Company's capital amounts to Euro 10,000.00 (ten thousand).

Article 6
DOMICILE

The domicile of members, for their relationship with the Company, shall be the one notified by them to directors.

The domicile of the directors and of the statutory auditors or independent auditors, if appointed, for their relationship with the Company, shall be the one notified by them to the Company.

Article 7
TRANSFER OF QUOTAS

Quotas are freely transferable, in whole or in part.

WITHDRAWAL

Members have the right to withdraw only in the cases provided for by mandatory provisions of law.

Any members wishing to withdraw from the Company shall notify their intention to the management body by registered letter.

The registered letter shall be sent within fifteen days of the date of registration in the Company Register or, if the latter is not required, of the date of recording in the minute book, of the resolution giving rise to the right of withdrawal, and shall include the personal details of the withdrawing member and his/her domicile for the purpose of the proceeding.

If the right of withdrawal is generated from an event other than a resolution, the relevant member may exercise it within and no later than thirty days after becoming aware of it.

The right of withdrawal shall be deemed to be exercised on the day the notice is received at the Company's registered office.

The exercise of the right of withdrawal shall be notified to the Company Register.

The right of withdrawal may only be exercised for the whole quota held by the withdrawing member.

The right of withdrawal shall not be exercised and, if exercised, shall be deemed to be void, if the Company revokes the resolution giving rise to it or resolves upon the Company's dissolution before the expiry of the repayment period.

Article 9
DIRECTORS

The Company shall be managed, based on a members' resolution and following the relevant appointments, by:

- a. a sole director (the "Sole Director"); or
- b. a board of directors (the "Board of Directors") composed of three to five members, according to the number determined by the members upon the appointment; or
- c. three to five directors with powers to be exercised jointly or by majority.

Should several directors be appointed with no indication of the mode of exercise of the management powers, a Board of Directors shall be deemed to be established.

“Management body” shall mean the Sole Director, the Board of Directors, or the group of directors entrusted with the management powers to be exercised jointly or by majority.

Directors may or may not be members.

The non-compete clause referred to in article 2390 of the Italian Civil Code shall not apply to directors.

Article 10

DURATION, REVOCATION, END OF TERM OF OFFICE

Directors shall hold office until revocation or resignation, or for the period determined by members upon the appointment.

Directors may be re-appointed.

End of term of office shall be effective as of the time of appointment of the new management body.

Subject to the provisions of the paragraph below, if during the financial year one or more directors cease to hold office, the others shall arrange their replacement; the directors appointed in this way shall hold office until the following meeting.

In the event of appointment of a Board of Directors, should half the directors – in the case of an even number – or the majority of the directors – in the case of an odd number – cease to hold office for any reason, the whole Board of Directors shall cease to hold office. The other directors shall, within thirty days, submit the appointment of the new management body to the members; in the meantime, they may only carry out ordinary management activities.

Article 11

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Unless already done by the members upon the appointment, the Board of Directors, if any, shall appoint a Chair from among its members and may appoint one or more Deputy Chair.

The resolutions of the Board of Directors may be adopted by written consultation or written consent, according to the procedure specified in Article 23 below.

The Chair shall convene the Board of Directors’ meetings, set the agenda, coordinate the works, and ensure that all the directors are adequately informed of the issues to be discussed.

The Board of Directors shall meet at the registered office or elsewhere, provided that it is in Italy.

The meetings and resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be valid, even if not formally convened, if all the directors in office and the statutory auditors or independent auditors, if appointed, are present.

The Board of Directors’ resolutions shall be valid if the majority of its members is actually present; resolutions shall be passed by an absolute majority of the votes of those present.

Resolutions taken at the meeting shall be recorded in minutes signed by the Chair and the secretary, if appointed, and shall be included in the directors’ minute book.

Article 12

POWERS OF THE MANAGEMENT BODY

The management body shall be vested with the broadest powers of ordinary and extraordinary management of the Company, without any exceptions, and it may carry out all actions deemed to be expedient to implement and achieve the Company's purposes, with the only exception of the ones mandatorily reserved for the Meeting by the law.

Should a Board of Directors be appointed, the latter may delegate all or part of its powers to an executive committee composed of some of its members, or to one or more of its members, whether jointly or severally. In this case, the provisions of paragraphs 3, 5 and 6 of Article 2381 of the Italian Civil Code shall apply. The powers specified in Article 2475, paragraph 5, of the Italian Civil Code may not be delegated.

Should several directors be appointed, upon their appointment, management powers may be attributed to them to be exercised either jointly or by majority. Should nothing be specified upon the appointment about the mode of exercise of management powers, such powers shall be deemed to be attributed to the directors to be exercised by majority. In the event of joint management, directors cannot carry out any transaction individually.

If the management is entrusted to several directors to be carried out by majority, in the event of objection by one director to the transaction that another director intends to carry out, members shall decide on the issue.

Executives, managers or attorneys-in-fact may be appointed for the performance of actions or categories of actions, and their powers shall be specified.

Article 13 REPRESENTATION

The Sole Director shall represent the Company.

Should a Board of Directors be appointed, the Company shall be represented by the Chair of the Board of Directors or, when the latter is absent or unable to act, by the Deputy Chair and by the individual directors with delegated responsibility, if appointed.

Should several directors be appointed, the Company shall be represented by them either jointly or by majority, in the same way as the management powers were attributed upon their appointment.

The representation of the Company shall also pertain to executives, managers and attorneys-in-fact, to the extent of the powers entrusted to them upon their appointment.

Article 14 REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors shall be entitled to the repayment of expenses incurred by reason of their position.

Members may also attribute an annual remuneration to directors, which shall remain unchanged until the members decide otherwise.

Article 15 AUDITING BODY AND INDEPENDENT AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

When the members deem it appropriate, they may appoint an auditing body or an independent auditor.

The appointment of the auditing body or the independent auditor is mandatory in the cases provided for by the law.

Based on a members' resolution and following the relevant appointments, the auditing body is composed of a sole standing member or of a board, composed of three standing members and two alternate members.

In case of appointment of an auditing body, even in a monocratic form, the provisions related to the board of statutory auditors of joint stock companies shall apply.

The auditing body or the independent auditor shall meet the requirements and have the skills and powers set out under the provisions on the board of statutory auditors of joint stock companies.

The audit of the Company's accounts is to be made, based on members' decisions and without prejudice to any mandatory provision, by an independent auditor or auditing firm registered with the relevant register, or by the auditing body where permitted by law.

The meetings of the board of statutory auditors may take place by teleconference or videoconference, in compliance with the conditions provided for the meetings of the Board of Directors.

Article 16 INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

If the Company appoints an independent auditor, the latter must be registered with the register established by the Ministry of Justice.

All the provisions related to the independent auditors of joint stock companies shall apply.

Article 17 MEMBERS' RESOLUTIONS

The members registered with the Company Register shall have the right to vote.

The resolutions concerning the following issues shall solely pertain to the members:

- a) approval of financial statements and allocation of profit;
- b) appointment and revocation of the Sole Director or the members of the Board of Directors and, if any, of the auditing body (and, in case of a board, of the Chair of the Board of Statutory Auditors) and of the independent auditor in charge of auditing the accounts; determination of the relevant remuneration; liability action against the auditing body and the independent auditor;
- c) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- d) mergers and demergers;
- e) transactions involving a material change to the members' rights.

The members shall also resolve upon the further issues reserved for them by the law or these Articles of Association and upon the issues that the Sole Director or one or more directors or a number of members representing at least one third of the Company's capital may submit to them for approval.

The members' resolutions are passed:

- a) by the majority required by the law in each individual case;
- and
- b) unless the law provides for the collective resolution of the Meeting, by written consultation or written consent;
- and, if adopted in compliance with the law and these Articles of Association, they shall be binding on all the members.

Article 18
MEETING

The Meeting shall be convened at the registered office of the Company or elsewhere, provided that it is in Italy.

The Meeting shall be convened by the management body by means of the notice referred to in Article 21 below.

Those who are registered with the Company Register have the right to attend meetings, including by proxy pursuant to Article 20 below.

The Meeting shall be chaired by the Sole Director, or by the Chair of the Board of Directors, or by the director duly appointed by those attending; in the event that the above-mentioned persons are not appointed, are absent or unable to act, the Meeting shall be chaired by the person designated by those present.

The resolutions taken at the Meeting shall be recorded in minutes signed by the Chair and the secretary. In the cases provided for by the law or at the request of the Chair, the minutes shall be drawn up by a notary public.

Article 19
MEMBERS' RESOLUTIONS

Members shall adopt resolutions by written consultation or written consent at the initiative of the Sole Director, of one or more directors, or of a number of members representing at least one third of the Company's capital according to the procedure specified in Article 23 below.

Article 20
PROXIES

Any member entitled to participate in the meeting may be represented by a person that may or may not be a member by written proxy, which shall be kept by the Company. The proxy shall specify the name of the representative and the extent of sub-delegation powers, if any.

Where the proxy is granted for a meeting on first call, it shall also be valid for the meeting on second call.

The power of representation cannot be entrusted to directors, statutory auditors or independent auditors, if appointed.

Article 21
NOTICES OF MEETING

The notice of meeting of corporate bodies shall include the day, time and place of the meeting and the list of items on the agenda, and shall be received by each person entitled to attend the meeting, including by electronic means, at least 3 (three) days – which in urgent cases may be reduced to 1 (one) day – before the day scheduled for the meeting.

Article 22
MEETINGS BY TELECONFERENCE/VIDEOCONFERENCE

The meetings of corporate bodies may also take place by teleconference or videoconference, based on the following conditions, which shall be acknowledged in the relevant minutes:

- a) the Chair and the secretary of the meeting, if appointed, shall be present in the same place, where the meeting shall be deemed to be held, and they shall draw up and sign the minutes;
- b) the chair of the meeting shall be allowed to ascertain the identity of those present, monitor the meeting, and acknowledge and announce the outcome of the voting process;
- c) the person drawing up the minutes shall be allowed to adequately hear the events of the meeting recorded in the minutes;
- d) those present shall be allowed to take part in the discussions and in the simultaneous voting in relation to the items on the agenda as well as view, receive or send the relevant documents.

Article 23

WRITTEN CONSULTATION AND WRITTEN CONSENT

The procedure for written consultation or for obtaining written consent is not subject to any particular restrictions, provided that each eligible person may take part in the decision-making process and receive adequate information.

The relevant resolution shall be adopted by written approval of a single document or of multiple documents containing the same text as resolved by the majority of the eligible persons.

The procedure shall be concluded within ten days of its start or the different period specified in the text of the resolution.

The resolution shall be deemed to be made when the answers of all eligible persons, addressed to at least one of the temporary legal representatives, are received at the registered office or, failing this, at the expiry of the period of time specified in the above paragraph.

Once informed, the temporary legal representative shall notify the outcome of the resolution to all the members, to the management body holding office, and to the auditing body or independent auditor, if any, specifying the following:

- those in favour, those against, and those abstaining;
- the date on which the resolution was made;

and sending them a summary of any remarks or statements relating to the subject-matter of the resolution, if so requested by those concerned.

The resolutions adopted in this way shall be promptly recorded in the relevant Company book.

The relevant documentation shall be kept with the Company.

Article 24

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Financial years shall end on 31 December of each year.

In compliance with the law, the management body shall draw up the annual financial statements, to be submitted to the members within one hundred and twenty days of the end of the financial year, without prejudice to the longer period of one hundred and eighty days provided for by Articles 2478-bis and 2364 of the Italian Civil Code.

Article 25

DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

The Company shall be dissolved for the reasons provided for by law.

In all cases of dissolution, the management body shall satisfy the publication requirements provided for by the law within thirty days of their occurrence or the different period of time provided for by the law.

The Meeting, if convened by the management body, shall appoint one or more liquidators determining the following:

- the number of liquidators;
- in the event of several liquidators, the board's regulations;
- who will represent the Company;
- the criteria to be adopted for the liquidation process;
- any restrictions on the powers of the liquidation body.

Article 26

ARBITRATION CLAUSE

Any dispute arising between members or between the members and the Company, and concerning any available rights relating to the relationship with the Company, save any dispute for which the public prosecutor is mandatorily required, shall be settled by an arbitration panel consisting of three arbitrators, all of whom appointed by the Chair of the Milan Bar Association within thirty days of the relevant request submitted by the party making the complaint. Should the Chair of the Milan Bar Association fail to make such appointment within the required period of time, the party making the complaint shall submit the appointment request to the Chair of the Milan Court.

The arbitrators appointed in this way shall designate the Chair of the arbitration panel. The arbitration panel shall be domiciled at the Chair's domicile.

The arbitration panel shall make a decision within ninety days of its appointment. The arbitration panel shall decide in an equitable way and issue an award enforceable as a contract (arbitrato irrituale).

It is hereby irrevocably agreed that the resolutions and decisions of the arbitration panel shall be binding on the parties.

The arbitration panel shall determine how to allocate the arbitration expenses among the parties.

The above-mentioned regulation shall also apply to any disputes initiated by or against any directors, liquidators and statutory auditors or independent auditors concerning any available rights relating to their relationship with the Company.

For anything not specified, the provisions of law shall apply.

The removal of this arbitration clause needs to be approved by a members' resolution voted by a majority representing at least two thirds of the Company's capital. The absent or dissenting members may, within the subsequent ninety days, exercise the right of withdrawal pursuant to Article 8 above.

Any amendments to the contents of this arbitration clause need to be approved by a members' resolution by the majority required to amend the Articles of Association.
